

MONIKA LA DOUS, GERMAN

Title: Die Verborgene Materials: wood and silver / glass Price € 710,-

In my jewellery I have concentrated for quite some time now on the concept of the mother goddess who, for centuries, played a major role in many ancient cultures. She is the incarnation of mankind's inherent spiritual language – absolutely timeless and independent of religious denomination. The original concept of the mother goddess knows no outward appearance, no human rules and no man-made hierarchy. She follows her own laws and is the unconditional law by which we all have to abide.

In my object "Die Verborgene" I have used the veiled figure of a woman as a symbol of the all-embracing energy. I was inspired by a picture of Mother Teresa, given to me by a photographer.
