

MARIA CONSTANZA OCHOA, ALCHIMIA, COLOMBIA

Materials: cutted pieces of Cinnamon sticks painted after with black acrylic, Price: € 850

Necklace made it by cutted pieces of Cinnamon sticks, painted after with black acrylic, taking care about the cinnamon smell. The necklace has also some pieces in Gold and copper, made them by hammering and soldering. The concept in the piece is based in Meditation, sometimes generated by the continuous repetition of a sound like AUM-OHM, for Hindus and Buddhists, or just like Catholics may meditate while reciting and counting prayers on a string of beads called rosary. My piece symbolizes the repetition of a syllable, represented by each bead, or just the counting of beads; all the senses are stimulated just by one: SMELL; and the Gold parts represent the precious moments in life reached by faith just because of one reason: TO BELIEVE.

